ARIZONA TOWNS

FLAGSTAFF.

From the Gem.
The excavation for the new bank building of E. S. Gosney on Laroux street will be completed this week.

The town council will convene on the 14th inst., at which time it is fondly anticipated that they will arrange to have street lights.

Miss Mary Riordan, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Riordan, left for Philadelphia, Penn., where she will enter school.

Harry Paige arrived in the city from Needles, Cal. Harry is an all-around ball player and will probably play with the Flagstaff during the carnival.

We don't say that the Albuquerque Daily Citizen has the big head, but will state that it has a new heading, and the paper is enlarged. Success to the Citizen.

Albuquerque will have the biggest, grandest and best fair ever held in the Duke City, and this is saying a great deal. The fair will be held this year October 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17.

Wm. O'Connor of Lincoln, Neb., district deputy M. W. A. of America for Arizona is here and will remain several days. During his stay he will organize the first Modern Woodmen lodge in Arizona at this place.

E. R. Jones, living at Rogers' Lake, nine miles west of here, has sold his ranch, crops, etc., to Messrs. Vail & Black. Mr. Jones and wife will return to their old home in Pennsylvania about the last of this month, where they will spend their declining days.

From the Sun.

Miss Maggie Rickel, who has been ill with the typhoid fever is convalescing.

J. H. Geisting, who has been to San Francisco, Cal., for the purpose of undergoing a surgical operation, returned, much improved in health, the operation having been successful.

The trustees of the public schools have had the bell on the school house extended to the height of the top of the building. The bell is surrounded with a flagstaff from which old glory will float during the sessions of school.

George McCormick was arrested on a charge of illegally branding calves. An examination was held before Justice Quinlan, who held McCormick under a $500 bond to appear before the next grand jury. Bond was furnished.

There are a number of territorial rangers in this county looking after the interests of the cattlemen, and already they have discovered a number of violations of the law and steps will be taken to punish the culprits.

David Floyd passed a check on one of our merchants which proved to be worthless. Floyd is a stranger here and as soon as he passed the check left town. A warrant was sworn out for his arrest and he was captured at Gallup and will be returned here for trial.

C. M. Zander and wife returned to their home in Phoenix. Mrs. Zander has been spending the summer here with her sister, Mrs. L. D. Yeager, and Mr. Zander has been enjoying the delights of Flagstaff and its surroundings, and thinks it an ideal place to spend the summer months.

KINGMAN.

From the Miner.

The Elks building is going up at a rapid rate and already the walls present a nice appearance.

Mrs. J. W. Tuck and son, who have been visiting with Mrs. A. H. Smith in Kingman, departed for their home in Needles.

Oliver Auglah, who went to Los Angeles about ten days ago for the benefit of his health, is reported to be in one of the hospitals of that city suffering from pneumonia. His many friends in this county hope for his early recovery, but his life in the desert unites him for a battle with this dread disease in a humid climate.

James McGregor, who for years resided in Eldorado Canyon, Nevada, returned from a two months' visit at his old home in Scotland. He also visited Ireland, England and France. While in New York he saw the second race between Reliance and Shamrock III, in which the Reliance won by one minute and nineteen seconds. Mr. McGregor is a true blue American citizen and is willing to spend the remainder of his days under the blue skies of the desert country.

WILLIAMS.

From the News.

Miss Ella Brown arrived in the city from the west.
Charlie Kirch has been spending several days in town from Grand Canyon.

Mrs. George H. Barney and children returned home from their outing at M. C. Ranch. A trip of that sort in the mountains is worth a dozen to the coast.

Andy Kline and family of Flagstaff left for South Africa, where they will reside in the future.

Mrs. F. L. Jones and two children are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kilgore, having arrived from Winslow. Mr. Jones is now engaged at Ash Fork in painting and papering the Harvey house.

Miss Dilette Buggeln came in last Sunday evening from Prescott, where she had been visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. L. Davis. She was met here Monday by her father, with whom she returned to the Grand Canyon.

Since the big flood last spring, which did considerable damage throughout the town, the crossing of Cataract creek on Williams avenue has not been the best. This week a force of men have been at work constructing a bridge over the same under direction of the council.

Ralph Cameron, who is running a couple of camps at Grand Canyon, one near the depot and the other down at the Indian Gardens, three and one-half miles down the Bright Angel trail, was in town. He says business has been exceedingly good and the future prospects are bright.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Webb arrived here from Fresno, Cal., and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Martin. Mr. Webb was some years since an engineer out of this point but is now running between Fresno and Bakersfield. They have visited the canyon and on their way home will stop off at various points to renew old friendships.

WINSLOW.

From the Mail.

Mrs. A. A. Avila has returned from a visit at Redondo, Calif.

Miss Sarah E. Aumema, the popular school teacher, has returned from a vacation trip.

Mrs. J. C. Corrigan, formerly a resident of Winslow, but now of Morenci, was here for a part of the week calling on her old friends.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hathaway, of Donnellson, Iowa, who has been visiting her son, Dr. C. L. Hathaway, left with Mrs. Downs for California. They will visit the interesting places of Southern California before returning.

The Order of American Boys held a meeting for the election of officers, all of which were re-elected, with the exception of Robert Hill, who resigned from the office of treasurer. The officers are: Captain, Harry Vaughan; vice-captain, Willie Allen; secretary, Alfonso Dunklin; treasurer, Elmer Jones; counselor, Mrs. A. L. Dunklin.

Last Sunday quite a number made a trip into the country to see the festivities of the Navajos which took place near G. W. Adams' trading post. The principal feature was omitted by the Indians—the corn dance—but they amused the spectators with chicken pulling and horse racing. The Navajo ponies were pretty fleet and some coin changed hands on the race between town horses and the ponies, the Indians getting the best end of the deal. The only unpleasant feature of the days' sport was a heavy rain.

Dr. George P. Sampson went to Holbrook, his mission being connected with the county board of health. He conferred with the other members of the board, Supervisor Divilbess and District Attorney Moran. Dr. Sampson is president of the board and he states that he will fulfill his duties strictly according to the law. A vigorous crusade will be started to prevent disease, and the first steps to be taken will be to see that cleaning up of back yards is commenced at once, the non-accumulation of garbage, stagnant pools of water and anything that helps to breed disease.

Undertaker W. A. Parr was summoned to Holbrook Wednesday night to embalm and prepare for burial the remains of E. Ross Burke. Mr. Burke met his death by falling from No. 2 about 2 o'clock Wednesday morning. No one witnessed him fall and his disappearance was not noticed until later on. It was supposed he had stopped at Holbrook. About 9 o'clock in the morning he was found in a dying condition by a refection foreman and brought into Holbrook. His injuries were serious and beyond all medical skill, and death relieved him of suffering. The remains were sent to Los Angeles, accompanied by Mr. Parr.

HOLBROOK.

From the Argus.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis of Mesa, Ariz., returned home. They have been visiting with relatives in St. Johns the past month and avoiding some of the hot weather of the Salt River valley.

Julius Weizler returned from Los Angeles.

Ed Bargeman came in from the range this week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Levi Savage, on Thursday, an eight-poured girl.

Mother and child doing nicely.

Mrs. Julius Greer and daughter Desie went to Flagstaff to take charge of a hotel.

James Scorse went to Flagstaff to work in the Arizona Lumber company's saw mill.

NEW RAILROAD FOR EL PASO.

A Charter Has Already Been Applied for by Pass City People.

While it is not generally known, yet it is a fact, that within the past few days, certain El Paso people have made application to the state of Texas for a charter for a railway from El Paso to the state line, west of the city.

This line is projected to run from El Paso to a connection with the new Clinton & Durango railway, and is being promoted by certain El Paso citizens.

The promoters of the line have been figuring on it for several months, and it is stated now that their finances are about arranged, and it is further stated that when the Clinton & Durango line is built, the line out of El Paso will also be built.—El Paso Herald.

THE FALL CARNIVAL.

Flagstaff Will Hold a Two Days Carnival of Sport, Races and Base Ball.

Flagstaff will hold a carnival of sports for two days, Friday and Saturday, September 25 and 26. The events will be horse racing such as free for all races, one-half mile and one quarter mile dashes, cow horse races, relay races, pony and burro races.

To the lovers of base ball there will be several games between the clubs from Williams, Winslow, Ash Forks and Flagstaff, and they will be interesting games.

The Indian games by a band of Navajo Indians from the reservation promises to be one of the chief attractions of the carnival.

The log sawing contest between the best log sawyers in the mountains will be a lively and good natured contest for the championship.

On Friday evening a grand ball will be given. Music will be furnished by the A. L. & T. Co. band during the carnival.

A number of horsemen who have fast animals have signified their intention of entering the races, and a couple of races made by horsemen between their horses will come off during the carnival.

The Santa Fe railroad has made reduced rates for the occasion and a large attendance is expected for both days of the carnival.—Flagstaff Sun.

GOT WHAT THEY WANTED.

General Manager Wells Gives Boiler-makers an Increase in Pay.

It was a well satisfied committee of boiler-makers that returned from Los Angeles after nearly two weeks' absence, every day of which was spent in long deliberations with General Manager Wells, says the San Bernardino Sun. A settlement of the wage differences was reached, and the committee returned with a knowledge of having completed a task which for weeks has been looked forward to with a feeling of suspense that was closely akin to dread.

The committee is not giving to talking of its accomplishments, but the members of the union who have heard of the agreement which has been reached are loud in praise of the committee's work. Said one of the boiler-makers: "The committee and General Manager Wells have at last agreed to a raise of 30 cents per day, which will increase the daily wage of the boiler-makers from $3.50 to $3.80 per day, and this is a great step to a scale of $4 per day, which the men will in time be receiving."

"I am not at liberty to state whether we delegated to the committee the power of signing a contract for the union before the men have finally passed on the matter, but you may state that so far there has not been found one of the men to raise a kick against the settlement, and the matter is now a thing of the past. We are fully satisfied, and what's more, none of us supposed at any time that any but a satisfactory arrangement would come of this matter. General Manager Wells throughout the discussion bore himself as a gentleman and gave us all to understand that he and the company wanted to do the right thing. I may truly say that at no time has there been the least harshness displayed either by the men or the officials."

CITY COUNCIL

Concessions Granted to the Territorial Fair.

ORDINANCE FOR VITRIFIED WALK

The Automobiles and Viaduct Discussed by Aldermen.

FIRE CHIEF NASH TALKED

The regular meeting of the city council was held last evening instead of Monday evening, because of Labor Day celebration on the latter date. Aldermen Harrison, Rogers, Hubbs, Grunsfeld, McKee and Beaven were present. In the absence of Mayor C. F. Meyers, who is visiting St. Louis, President G. W. Harrison presided.

The proceedings began with the appearance of O. N. Marron, president of the Territorial Fair association, who asked for certain matters of legislation deemed necessary to the success of the great enterprise. Among these was the granting to the association the privilege of closing Fourth and Fifth streets, between Railroad and Gold avenues, as a location for the carnival company. Mr. Marron also asked that the city furnish twelve additional arc lights during fair week, the same to be placed at the discretion of the association; and that no licenses be granted for shows or other entertainments while the fair continued. Alderman Grunsfeld moved, and the council passed the motion, that these requests be granted.

After the usual list of claims and accounts had been presented and referred to the appropriate committees, a communication was read from the Santa Fe Railway company, asking that the city sign a contract for the placing of a sewer under the railway tracks on the Mountain road. On motion of Alderman Beaven the contract was signed.

A note ordinance was passed ordering the laying of a vitrified brick sidewalk on the west side of South Broadway, between Silver and Coal avenues. An ordinance was introduced amending Section 9 of ordinance No. 7, and providing that neither horse, bicycle nor automobile shall be driven within the city limits at a greater rate of speed than eight miles an hour, under a fine of $25 and costs for the first offense. Other provisions of the ordinance had reference to leaving horses to stand upon the streets not properly hitched, to passing the intersection of streets at a higher rate of speed than four miles per hour and to prohibit automobiles the use of the Coal avenue viaduct. The last clause produced considerable discussion. City Attorney Stingle gave the legal opinion that the city had the undoubted right to prohibit automobiles from using the viaduct, and Alderman Harrison was of the same opinion. Alderman McKee doubted the city's right in the premises. Alderman Beaven declared the auto to be more dangerous than the street car, because the latter goes straight ahead and the former often wobbles. Alderman Hubbs attributed this eccentricity of motion to the driver's having indulged in Monogram rye. Finally the ordinance was referred to the grievance committee for report at the next meeting.

The city marshal's report showed for the month of August 122 arrests, 315 meals served, and $535 collected in fines. The city treasurer reported $11,584 in the treasury at the close of the month. The city clerk reported for August a collection of $825.50 from licenses, of which $161 was from the dog tax fund.

Besides these matters of business, the remainder of the evening was taken up in kicks and complaints. The pawn-brokers led with a communication asking that their license be reduced from $250 to $50, and that the sum of $200 be returned to brokers who had paid the larger sum. The petition was referred to the finance committee.

Then came Fire Chief Nash in a verbal report, claiming the fire department to be in a very bad way, the city virtually having no fire alarm system, while equipment was insufficient, the men employed too few and their wages too small. Chairman Hubbs of the fire committee agreed with Chief Nash and contended that instead of ten alarm boxes as now, the city should not have less than eighteen. In fact he placed the needed outlay at $1,500. Alderman Grunsfeld thought the council should move slowly in the face of so large an expenditure. Other members took a hopeful view of the situation, and but no action was had.

Alderman McKee presented a vigorous kick on the city light service; and Alderman Hubbs reported his lawn damaged by stray stock, and expressed his desire that the newspaper ordinance will be strictly enforced, while the pound master complained that the dog tax was being shirked by tanny owners, and that many of the dogs were as large as yearling calves and hard to catch.

MRS. ANNIE M. BRADLEY.

She Attacks Former United States Senator Brown at Salt Lake City. Mrs. Annie M. Bradley, who will be remembered by the old timers of Albuquerque as the wife of a former dentist of this city, has come to the front again since leaving the Rio Grande valley, and this time figures in an old-fashioned umbrella and flat fight with a man, the defeated hero of the encounter being former United States Senator Brown of Salt Lake City, Utah. Mrs. Bradley was here about two years ago, and her venerable appearance would not indicate much fight in her. However, she demonstrated her ability to slug, as the following article from a special dispatch to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat shows:

Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 6.—Conceded to desperation, as she asserts, by insults heaped upon her by the man who is seeking to renounce and discard her to save himself from occupying a cell in the penitentiary, Mrs. Annie M. Bradley last evening assaulted former United States Senator Arthur Brown in his office at 212 South Main street, striking him several stunning blows in the face with her umbrella and following this up with her fist.

Attacks of the office soon forced the little woman to desist her attack, but not before she had disfigured her enemy to the extent of breaking several of his front teeth. No arrests were made, and every effort was made to keep the affair from becoming public property.

The assault and the incidents attending it are the culmination of a very unfortunate case of marital infidelity and alliance, in which Senator Brown and two women have been involved, and which has been aired in the courts and otherwise several times during the past few years.

Recently suits on statutory charges were brought by the state against Brown on account of his relations with Mrs. Bradley. The encounter is an echo of these.

Secures Contract.

Santa Fe Architect Chas. F. Whittlesey returned yesterday from Silver City, where he spent a few days in conference with the management of the Silver City Normal school. Mr. Whittlesey has secured a contract for furnishing plans for a $20,000 dormitory building to be built as an addition to the normal school. The new dormitory will be built of brick and entirely modern in construction.

FARO BOX.

It Can Be Used for Other Purposes Than Card Drawing.

Norman Travis was put under bond this morning charged with assaulting Joe Sante, "Klondike" dealer at the St. Elmo, with a faro box. Travis and Sante had words over money matters. Sante assaulted Travis with words, to which the latter resented strenuously. Sante suffered from a severe scalp wound inflicted by a steel faro box, hurled by Travis. The case will come up in police court tomorrow morning.

Left for Deadwood.

Dr. F. A. Jones, world's fair commissioner and superintendent of the territorial fair mining exhibit, left last night for Deadwood, South Dakota, where he goes as a delegate from New Mexico to the National Mining Congress. After attending the congress Dr. Jones will go to Chicago and St. Louis. At Chicago the doctor will look after matters pertaining to mining; at St. Louis his mission will be matters in regard to the New Mexico exhibit at the exposition and the New Mexico building site. He will be absent from the city several weeks.

MINING DEAL NEAR GOLDEN.

Interest in Lucas Claims Sold to Leon S. Gresswald.

John P. Girard, formerly of Golden, in the southern part of Santa Fe county, has sold twenty-five eighths of the Illinois mine in the Placer mining district and assigned a mortgage made to him by James M. Lucas on the Illinois, Black Prince and Ohio mines, for $4,500, to Leon S. Gresswald of Boston, Mass., the assignment being recorded in the county clerk's office at Santa Fe yesterday. The price paid for the interest in the Illinois mine was $1,700. These properties constitute the well known Lucas mines.

NEW MEXICO TOWNS

DEMING.

From the Graphic.

Mrs. M. W. Mayfield returned from an extended visit to her parents in the lower Mimbres valley.

Mrs. John Allison returned from Dwyer where she had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Eby.

Charles Hubbard and wife returned from their visit to Santa Rita. Mr. Hubbard is showing some fine samples of high grade ore taken from his mine in that district and thinks he has something good up there.

Mrs. Hanna Moore, wife of Clarence I. Moore of this city, died of blood poisoning Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock and was buried on the residence Monday afternoon. Mrs. Moore, whose maiden name was White, was a native of the state of Michigan and came to Deming about eight years ago since which time this has been her home.

A. M. Little and his niece, Miss Harriet Scane, returned from an overland trip to Silver City and Pinos Altos, returning by way of the Mimbres valley and making a visit at the home of V. H. Taylor. Miss Scane who has been spending the summer with her uncle, expects to return to her home in southern Iowa about the 27th of this month.

The best riders in Luna county are going to enter the cowboy tournament at the Territorial fair in Albuquerque, October 12 to 17. This is not surprising. When there is good sport in Luna county man at the front, and there is certainly going to be good sport in Albuquerque during fair week next month. The horse racing alone will be worth going many miles to see, and the cowboy tournament is sure to be a warm number. C. G. Hall, who has lots of friends in Deming is managing the cowboy tournament and that ensures it.

SILVER CITY.

From the Independent.

The first day's enrollment at the Normal school was 122, which is being increased daily.

Some needed repairs are being made on the grant county hospital. A cement walk was ordered laid in front of the administration building as a means to prevent the tracking of mud into the institution.

BERNALILLO BREVITIES.

Santa Ana Indians—Interesting Personal Paragraphs.

Bernalillo, N. M., Sept. 8.—The Santa Ana Indians have finished threshing their wheat. A farmer from the great wheat belt of the United States would be astonished at the primitive methods employed. The grain is first cut with a sickle, then hauled to the threshing ground. This has been prepared by making a floor of adobe mud and beating it with poles until it is hard. The threshing floor is surrounded by a circular fence made of poles and ropes. After several wagon loads of wheat have been stacked in the middle of the floor, forty or fifty horses are brought and driven around and around, trampling out the grain. This is afterward winnowed by tossing it up with pitchforks so the chaff and straw will be blown away. The women complete the task by tossing the wheat in baskets, removing the last bits of chaff, then washing the grain and drying it in the sun.

Mrs. O. M. John has gone to Pueblo, Colo., to spend a few weeks with her sister.

Miss Aftia Tataya and Eaden Jones of Corrales were married in Bernalillo September 7. Father Conder performed the ceremony.

The public schools opened today with almost one hundred pupils in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Metcalf of Albuquerque were the guests of Mrs. Lund on Sunday.

The mother superior and Sister Mary Bernard of St. Catherine's school in Santa Fe visited the sisters of Loreto. They returned to Santa Fe Monday morning.

LAS VEGAS.

Miss Laura Miller, the vocalist, is suffering from an attack of tonsillitis so aggravated as to confine her to the bed.

The Catholic fair which was to have been given during the present month, has been postponed until November 16, by the good ladies having the affair in charge.

G. A. Gosser was the only representative of the International Cigar Makers' Union in America in the La-
